March News at the Tell Café

With Winter ending and Spring beginning, thoughts turn to warmer days. But, as the saying goes, "March is mad as a hare," so expect some chilly days. Get your engine roaring with a hot cup of Espresso, our feature this month. Did you know that "espresso" is not a type of roast or coffee bean? It's simply a method of preparing coffee. The beans are ground much finer and the hot water, used for extraction, is under high pressure. The method makes for a smaller, but more intense drink.

Reading Theater Project's Performed Reading of Elizabeth Wein's Rose Under Fire

Join us as the Reading Theater Project performs the novel by Elizabeth Wein's Rose Under Fire. It follows the story of an 18 year old American pilot and her trials and tribulations through WWII. RTP's adaption of the novel is written by Vicki Haller Graff and her team includes Christopher David Roche along with a cast of local professional actors. About Reading Theater Project: The Reading Theater Project is a collective of professional performing artists who create and present new theater inspired by our community. They give local performing artists an artistic home, including opportunities for collaboration, development, showcasing, and personal growth. They strive to create art that stimulates the audience, bringing people together, and expressing our community in an artistic and positive light. Visit www.readingtheaterproject.com to learn more.

MAKE ME: Learn to Solder

Based on great feedback from January's soldering event, we are repeating this program as staffing and space allow! Designed for teens ages 12-19 - parental permission form must be signed for minors as a condition of admission. Would your teen like to learn to safely use a soldering iron? Soldering is essential in making and repairing electronics, jewelry and even stained glass! Your tween or teen will learn safety tips, observe a skilled maker using the equipment, and have an opportunity to make a small item to take home. Safety glasses will be provided and will be required to participate. Participants must wear hair tied back, shirts tucked in, long pants and shirts (no loose-fitting clothes) and closed-toed shoes. If your teen enjoys soldering, stay tuned for additional programs. This program, once completed successfully, will pre-certify your teen to participate in a "level two" soldering session (coming later in 2017).

Monday, March 27 at 6:30 PM

MAKE ME: Laser Cutter & DIY Laptop

Appropriate for ages 8-18. Two sessions are available so please choose the one that best meets your schedule. Registration is required. This month we welcome tech artist Michael Dennis, who comes to us from our partnership with MAKE 717. Michael will show us the Laser Cube, an entry-level laser cutter that grew from a Kickstarter campaign. Laser cutters can be used in a variety of functional and beautiful applications, such as engraving and cutting paper, wood, acrylic, textiles, and more. Learn how lasers work, and see them in action! To program his laser cutting jobs, Michael will be utilizing a Pi-Top, the first Do-it-Yourself laptop! You will leave this program with the basics of how to operate a laser cutter using gCode and some design tools. You will also be provided with sources of information to take your knowledge to the next level.
