MAKE ME: Arduino

This month we will build circuits using Arduino – an open source electronics platform based on easy-to-use hardware and software. It's a great way to learn how to make interactive projects. This beginner program will also provide a solid introduction to electronic components and circuit building. If you're already participating in our coding programs (Coder Dojo, Hour of Code, Minecraft), and want to take it further, this is a great way to learn! Appropriate for ages 10+.

Tell Café Drink of the Month: October

In October, days shorten, clocks go back, celebrations begin, and Halloween sees ghosts and witches gallivanting throughout the country. When it comes to food and beverages, get ready for pumpkin flavored everything, including our special this month, Pumpkin Spice Latte. This sweet concoction is made with steamed milk, espresso, sweetened pumpkin flavoring, and topped with whipped cream and pumpkin pie spice. Some surprising facts about this icon of Fall food, drink and décor are: 1) Pumpkin is a fruit, 2) Pumpkin is a Squash, 3) Pumpkin seeds are edible, 4) Pumpkins are believed to have originated in the Americas, and 5) Indians introduced Pumpkins (and other squash) to the Pilgrims leading to it become a staples in their diet.

Together, They Made the Modern American First Ladyship

Dr. Robert Frick, back by popular demand, brings more great characters of our country to life through six highly informative and entertaining sessions. TOGETHER, THEY MADE THE MODERN AMERICAN FIRST LADYSHIP, ELEANOR ROOSEVELT TO LAURA BUSH is an apolitical presentation as researched by the presenter on the leadership style of the twelve ladies considered by historians as the modern day presidents' wives.

Mondays from 10:00 AM – Noon:

October 2: Thelma Catherine Ryan Nixon, Elizabeth Ann Bloomer Ford, Eleanor Rosalyn Smith Carter

October 9: Anne Frances Davis Reagan and Barbara Pierce Bush

October 16: Hillary Dianne Rodham Clinton and Laura Welch Bush

Author Presentation: Twiceborn by JP Robinson

Get a taste of life in 17th century France from author JP Robinson who has taught the French language and French history. Besides a talk about his book, Twiceborn, the event will include a 17th century costumed character, short trivia questions with a prize, and giveaway bookmarks. Book sales and signing to follow program.

17th century France is on the brink of war but intrigue and jealous plots at the court of Versailles threaten to destroy the kingdom from within. Hear more about Twiceborn: Book 1 of Secrets of Versailles.
