Tell Café Drink of the Month: May

MINT MEDLEY ICED TEA

This refreshing, caffeine free, beverage is made from a blend of garden spearmint and peppermint grown and harvested in America, and served over ice. Both spearmint and peppermint tea are universally known for their restorative and health benefits. We use a cold brew method in making our iced teas. This creates a smoother and subtler beverage, lacking in acidity that can occur with the traditional hot brew method. This invigorating beverage is perfect for warmer days, but won't keep you from a restful night's sleep.

Author Q & A with Jesse Waters

Join Jesse Waters, winner of the River Styx International Poetry Contest, for an evening of poetry and short stories as he reads from his recently published collection "So Let Me Get This Straight" and other works. Then, stick around for Q & A with the author! Copies of his book will be available to purchase.

A winner of the River Styx International Poetry Contest, runner-up for the Iowa Review Fiction Prize and Finalist in The Starcherone Prize, the DIAGRAM Innovative Fiction Prize and the Paul Bowles Fiction Award, Jesse Waters is a recipient of a NC Artist's Grant to attend the Vermont Studio Center, and is currently Director of the Bowers Writers House at Elizabethtown College.
